In “10 Super Spring Wines for \$25 and Under,” Stephanie Miskew CSW looks to the “fresh, fruity flavors of spring” for her wine picks this season, particularly those that “won’t break the bank.” Included among her selections:

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Saint-Cosme 2014

“For the full-bodied red wine lover, this 100 percent Syrah features inviting aromatics of black fruit and violets, followed on the palate by juicy red currant, black cherry, plum and licorice. A bold choice for spring but true wine-lovers won't be disappointed.”

In “Game of Rhônes” social media influencer Alyssa Vitrano compares characters on the show with different types of Rhône wine, based on personality. Alyssa pairs Viognier with the character of Jaime Lannister, “a pretty boy who has elegance but heft,” such as the CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Little James Basket Press Blanc 2014: “Crisp yellow apple skins and yellow florals with great acidity – love it.”

For the character of Jon Snow, Alyssa pairs him with Gigondas and recommends CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Gigondas 2013: “Has aromas of savory meat and violets with lots of brown dirt on the palate.”
