93 points - Barruol has turned out a beautiful 2010 Condrieu which exhibits lychee, honeysuckle, white peach and apricot notes, good acidity, some crushed rock notes and a long finish.

Creamed pear, white ginger, green almond and melon notes all glide along in this weighty, yet pure and defined, Viognier. This finishes with a hint of fennel frond to keep it honest. Lovely. Drink now through 2015.-J.M.
