

Condrieu 2017

Wine spectator

Wine Spectator Insider – September 18, 2019

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Condrieu 2017 – 95 points

“A bold style, with quince, lemon curd, creamed pear, apricot and white peach flavors lending range and weight. Verbena and warm brioche details infuse the lush finish. Very showy and pulls it off.”

Jeb Dunnuck

AOP Condrieu, Saint Cosme, white, 2017 - Rating 93

Tasted out of bottle, the 2017 Condrieu offers lots of honeyed pineapple, white flowers, and a hint of tangerine in a more medium-bodied, fresh, vibrant style. This was a hot, sunny vintage, yet this shows notable purity,

James Suckling

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Condrieu 2017, 92 points

«This has a more savory style with dialed-in fruit, delivered into a place of real smoothness. Rich, peach and apricot-custard aromas, brulee custard and a honeyed, long and fleshy finish.»