

Vinsobres 2019

Wine spectator

Château de Rouanne 2019 Rating: 92

Delivers a nice saturated feel without being heavy, letting cherry and plum paste notes unfurl slowly, along with violet, licorice root and warm humus accents, which all blossom steadily through the savory finish. Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre. Drink now through 2027. 6,800 cases made, 1,250 cases imported. — JM Issue: Apr 30, 2022 Wine Spectator

Decanter

Château de Rouanne 2019 Rating : 89 Tasted by Matt Walls (at England, 16 Aug 2021)

Part of Walls: exploring the three Vs of the Southern Rhône

Ripe berry coulis on the nose with a ferrous tang. Full-bodied, very ripe and potent, with intense, concentrated fruit and warming alcohol on the finish. It does have a sense of freshness at its core however, and chalky tannins like 100% cacao dark chocolate. Drinking Window 2021 - 2024

Jeb Dunnuck

Château de Rouanne Vinsobres Rating : 90

Looking at the reds, the 2019 Vinsobres is unquestionably outstanding and has lots of Syrah character in its dark, meaty fruits, peppery herb, violet, and chalky mineral-like aromas and flavors. Medium-bodied, nicely textured, and balanced, it has plenty of structure and will keep for 8-10 years. (Jeb Dunnuck 1/25/2022, Source Southern Rhone's 2019s and 2020s: Part 2)

Drink Rhône John Livingstone

CHÂTEAU DE ROUANNE

LVT 2020 r 2011 wh This estate was bought by Louis Barruol of Château de Saint Cosme in 2018, that vintage jointly worked by him with Marc Ferrentino. It has been a good, reliable name at Vinsobres. It is a domaine with extensive vineyards that started to bottle a small proportion of its wine in 1998. Most of its wine was sold in bulk. It was a property mainly growing olives when bought in 1960, and still makes its own Virgin Olive Oil. The wines come in a solid shape, and can show full, robust qualities.

The first big quality strike under the new owner came with the 2019, a () wine of rolling depth, very long.