

Gigondas 2012

Wine advocate

92- Another great traditional cuvee, the 2012 Gigondas shows the house style with its savory dark fruits, ground herbs, pepper and mineral-like bouquet. Medium to full-bodied, voluptuous and gorgeously textured, it can be drunk now or cellared for a decade.

90-92 points : Moving to the releases in barrel, the 2012 Gigondas (60% Grenache and the balance mostly Mourvedre, with some Syrah) has plenty of potential, with juicy black raspberry, sweet spice, licorice and toasty notes as well as medium to full-bodied richness and depth on the palate. Nicely balanced, it shows the purity of the vintage, as well as a relatively approachable style that should allow it to drink nicely on release. (Not yet released)

Tasting Note

Lovely bay leaf, pepper, lavender and tobacco notes impart texture and range as they wrap around a core of solid black currant and fig fruit. Shows a grippy charcoal feel through the finish. Very solid. Best from 2015 through 2024. 835 cases imported.

91 - 2012 Château de Saint Cosme Gigondas Brilliant ruby. An expansive bouquet evokes fresh blackberry and lavender, with a mineral topnote and a hint of incense. Silky, sweet and palate-coating, with vibrant dark fruit flavors given spine by zesty acidity. Finishes on a sweet note, with very good clarity and smooth tannins.
