

Hominis Fides rouge 2021

Decanter

Matt Walls, 92pts "Darker and earthier than some of his other cuvées, with a touch of caramel from the oak. Full-bodied, ripe, generous with balanced acidity and robust oak. Good energy and tension, but needs a while to come together."

Jeb Dunnuck

Jeb Dunnuck 92-94pts "The 2021 Gigondas Hominis Fides brings a touch more ripeness in its strawberry and darker berry fruits as well as spicy, earthy, graphite-like aromatics. Medium to full-bodied, supple, and downright pretty, with ultra-fine tannins, it's another elegant, beautifully balanced wine from this estate that will drink nicely right out of the gate."

Vinous

Josh Raynolds, 95-97pts "Deep, vivid ruby-red. Intensely perfumed, mineral-tinged scents of medicinal cherry, redcurrant and cassis are completed by suggestions of star anise, white pepper and pungent flowers. It offers densely packed bitter cherry, red berry liqueur, lavender and licorice flavors that open up very slowly with air. Extremely primary but highly promising, with a long, spice and mineral-tinged finish shaped by youthfully firming tannins. Made with 100% whole clusters, raised in barriques, one third of them new."

Jancis Robinson UK

Jancis Robinson, Rating : 16,5+, "Tasted blind. Youthful yeasty nose, chalky, blueberry compote. A savoury palate with a twist of rose-petal perfume. The tannins are chalky, rounded and well judged and balanced against a backdrop of fresh crisp acidity. Long, detailed and fine."
