Red wine please !

July 6, 2019

In "Solid Value from the Cotes du Rhone and Saint Cosme," the CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Saint-Cosme 2017 was reviewed. Côtes du Rhône was described as "a great choice for a tasty, spicy red wine with some body and character, as well as one which will not break the bank. It's a great value category in general, and you're not going to be frequently disappointed. Still, it's always worth pointing out when a good one comes along. Here is a good one." The reviewers write: "the wine is a dark purple/red in color, and presents dark fruits on the nose. You get plum jam, and savory notes, as well as herbs. On the palate the juice is full bodied, with firm tannins and a long spicy finish. This will go great with your next barbecue, roast beef, pulled pork or even a pizza. A very enjoyable Côtes de Rhône."
