

Côtes du Rhône 2009

Wine advocate

87 points Made from 100% cool climate Syrah from the sector of Gard, which is well-known for its favorable terroir for Syrah, the tank-aged 2009 Cotes du Rhone exhibits a deep ruby/purple hue along with loads of peppery black fruits and a delicious, soft style. Drink it over the next 1-2 years. Wine Spectator – December 31, 2015

In “Plan B’ for Wine,” James Molesworth recommends CHÂTEAU DE ST.-COSME Les Deux Albion as one of his go-to Côtes du Rhône that are “mouthfilling reds loaded with black fruits allied to dense but silky textures, finishing with tar, alder and hot stone” which gives the “mini-Châteauneuf-du-Pape experience along with the mini-price tag.”
