“Bright damson plum and blackberry coulis flavors glide along, carried by a mouth-watering anise note through the racy, violet-edged finished.”

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône 2014 – 90 points

“Ripe blackberry, olive, violet and peppery spices on the fragrant nose. Palate-coating dark berry and floral pastille flavors show very good energy and a smoky topnote that gains intensity as the wine opens up. Rich yet energetic, showing strong closing thrust, even tannins and a suave, lingering floral quality.”

In “10 Super Spring Wines for $25 and Under,” Stephanie Miskew CSW looks to the “fresh, fruity flavors of spring” for her wine picks this season, particularly those that “won’t break the bank.” Included among her selections:

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Côtes du Rhône Saint-Cosme 2014

“For the full-bodied red wine lover, this 100 percent Syrah features inviting aromatics of black fruit and violets, followed on the palate by juicy red currant, black cherry, plum and licorice. A bold choice for spring but true wine-lovers won’t be disappointed.”
