In "Visiting Finger Lakes? Check out these wineries, restaurants on Seneca Lake", Tracy Schumacher provides readers with a guide to Finger Lakes wine region. Among the 9 wineries she recommends visiting is Forge Cellars. She writes: "Forge Cellars is one of the newer wineries in the Finger Lakes but has received national attention. One reason: One of its three owners is respected French winemaker-grower LOUIS BARRUOL of CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME, in the southern Rhône region of France."
