CHÂTEAU DE SAINT COSME Gigondas 2015 – 91-93

“Starting with the 2015 Gigondas Classique from Barruol, this blend of 70% Grenache, 15% Mourvèdre and the rest Syrah and Cinsault will be a wine that readers will want to stockpile. Full-bodied, rich, beautifully textured and layered, with killer notes of crème de cassis, white pepper, spice and garrigue, it’s a classic Gigondas that will drink well for 15+ years.”

Wine Spectator Insider – August 9, 2017 CHÂTEAU SAINT COSME Gigondas 2015 – 95 points

“A textbook version of the brawny side of Gigondas, this offers a grippy alder bass line underneath layers of dark currant and fig fruit, while lots of tobacco, rosemary and bay fill in throughout. Muscular and energetic, this is built for the cellar.”

2015 Château de Saint Cosme Gigondas - 94

A wine readers need to snatch up is the 2015 Gigondas as it way over-delivers and is up with the finest examples of the classic Gigondas made. Based on 70% Grenache, 15% Mourvèdre, 14% Syrah and a splash of Cinsault, aged in 15% new barrels, it boasts terrific notes of sweet cassis and black raspberry fruits, garrigue, toasted spices and pepper. With full-bodied richness, beautiful sweetness of fruit and an opulent, sexy texture, it will drink nicely for 10-15 years.

2015 Château de Saint Cosme Gigondas

Lurid ruby-red. Ripe red berries, pungent flowers, musky herbs and a hint of game on the highly perfumed nose. Sweet red fruit and lavender pastille flavors show very good depth and an energizing jolt of peppery spices on the back half. Finishes spicy, focused and long, with resonating red berry character and sneaky tannins lending shape.

Cask sample.

“Tasted blind. Dark crimson. Polished, vaguely floral, but quite intense, aromas. Sweet and round at the start – very worked! This should deliver a great deal of pleasure. Some hint of animal but mainly lots of sweet fruit. Some Mourvèdre?”

CHÂTEAU DE SAINT-COSME Gigondas 2015 – 91 points

“Attractive deep and rich cherry and blackberry fruits, with some savory cola and sweet baking spices, too. The palate has deep flavorsome and fleshy appeal. Long and spicy dark plum fruit finish. Drink now.”
