

Le Poste rouge 2020

Wine spectator

Wine Spectator Château de St.-Cosme Gigondas Le Poste 2020 Rating : 96 points

A behemoth of a wine, with dense layers of sweet, ripe plum sauce and mulled cherry that take a dark, savory turn on the palate, coated in melted iron, black licorice, balsamic reduction and singed herbs. Despite its massive power and coiled energy, this is surprisingly delicious now, with beautiful harmony to the texture and structure. A wine to savor and contemplate. Drink now through 2040. 24 cases imported. BS Nov.2022

The oak is forthright on the nose. Tannins are upright, structured and crisp. Full-bodied, juicy and generous, there's some good drive and focus beneath the oak, and it finishes long. More depth than most, but will take time for the terroir and fruit to rise above the oak. Single vineyard Grenache planted on limestone marl. No destemming and 12 months maturation in French oak barriques: 20% new, 50% one-year-old, 30% two-year-old. Unfiltered.
