

Les côtes 2020

Decanter

Château de Rouanne 2020 « Les Côtes » Rating : 91

Full-bodied, concentrated, this has those tight, serrated Vinsobres tannins and balancing acidity. It's a big wine that will take a little while to come round. Perhaps just a touch overripe, but this has plenty of substance and guts. Tasted by Matt Walls(at Rhône Valley, 01 Oct 2021) Part of Rasteau, Cairanne & Vinsobres 2020: report and top-scoring wines.

Bettane & Desseauve

Jeb Dunnuck, 93+pts "Lastly, the 2020 Vinsobres Les Côtes has an almost Côte Rôtie-like vibe in its black raspberry, spring flower, game, and tapenade-driven aromas and flavors. Pure, medium to full-bodied, and incredibly elegant on the palate, with polished tannins, it's another remarkable wine from this estate, which needs to be on every reader's radar."
